RICH STRINGER FOUND IN PLACER WORKINGS

While Dave Llewellyn was engaged in sluicing his Round Mountain ground he found on the Blue Jacket estate a stringer that evidently had thrown at least a portion of the gold he was taking out of his rifles. After the cleanup was made he took out 78 sacks of ore from this vein that was gashed in the porphyry and had the stuff milled. Mr. Llewellyn, who is in Tonopah today, says that his returns were at the rate of $242 to the ton. He is going back and develop the quartz while the placer operations are impossible due to the scarcity of water until after the snows of winter fall and the springtime sun reduces them to the constituency needed for operating sluice boxes.

GOOD FIGHT CARD FOR EVENING OF 12TH

BRATTON AND McAULIFFE ARE MATCHED FOR A CONTEST AT THE AIRDOME

A very good fight card was arranged last night by the members of the Business Men's Athletic club, to be held at the Airdome on Friday evening, November 12. The card, which is well balanced, will consist of two ten-round main events and some of the liveliest milling will be seen in Tonopah in a long time can be expected.

Jack Bratton, who is well known in Tonopah and in all the surrounding camps, has been matched with Eddie McAuliffe of Goldfield for one of the events. Bratton arrived in town a few days ago looking fine from his stay at Reno and Elko, where he knocked out Jack Douglas in one round.

The other event will be between Bert Wagner, who is making Tonopah his home, and Danny Mathews of Goldfield. Wagner, who is a brother of Herb White, is a very classy boy and promises to show it to all the fight fans who will attend the coming show. Bert fought here a few weeks ago, his opponent being Speck Duffy, who proved to be no match for such an experienced lad as Wagner, but in this fellow Mathews, Bert isn't meeting a novice and he will undoubtedly have to extend himself if he expects to win, as the Goldfield boy is a dangerous puncher and a bear when it comes to taking punishment.

The management of the Airdome is going ahead with the work of roofing the big pavilion and the fans needn't fear to have to sit out in the cold to watch the boxers perform.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY BY THE EASTERN STAR

INTERESTING HOLIDAY PROGRAM IS PRESENTED LAST EVENING IN MASONIC HALL

Last evening in Masonic hall the Eastern Star gave its annual party to the children and a most delightful evening was spent. The lodge room and banquet room were both beautifully decorated in accord with Halloween. The following program was rendered by the little folks and plainly showed their talent and training:

Hallowe'en song, by all the children, vocal solo, Miss Gloria Brown, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Davis; instrumental solo, Miss Gladys Cochran; reading, Mrs. Irene Mitchell, "Days of the Week"; instrumental solo, Miss Dilworth; recitation, Master Philip Farris; instrumental solo, little Bernice Trabert; song, by six little girls; recitation, Master Frank Wittenberg; recitation, Miss Ida Libby; "Spring Greeting," by ten young ladies; instrumental solo, Miss Dorothy Anderson; recitation, Master Walter Trabert; recitation, Miss Georgia Knox; instrumental solo, Miss Lorene Trezise; instrumental solo, Miss Geneva Luffin; Hallowe'en frolic.

The table was laden with the many good things that all children love and a general good time was indulged in until a late hour. Each child carried home a souvenir of the occasion and all pronounced it a perfect success. Much credit and praise is due to the ladies who so successfully managed the affair.

Coffee

Who can afford poor coffee?

Only the extravagant, who don't know good!

The satisfaction of fine coffee, costs almost nothing, if you use Schilling's Best. Its economy is in its freedom from bitterish chaff, its even grinding and the absolute protection of its full, rich strength.

INTERESTING MIXUP AT THE COURTHOUSE

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS LIKELY TO GET A ROLAND FOR THEIR OLIVER

Of all the hardworking officials in the court house, Billy Grimes, the auditor and recorder, is one of the heaviest pressed, his duties being rendered particularly onerous by the action of the Nevada tax commission.

Billy grew tired and cranky, after working so long, days, nights and Sundays, and he hid himself away to see the Panama-Pacific exposition. It was much to his discouragement and disgust when he returned to find that the county commissioners had held up $105 from his deputies' salary warrants for the brief time he was on his vacation. Billy isn't saying what he will do, but it is a foregone conclusion that if he feels like it he can, in his official capacity, hold up the warrants for salaries of the commissioners until such time as he is mandated by the courts. It is not known whether he will do this or not, for he is saying nothing but merely looking wise. The commissioners, by the way, are conspicuous for their absence from the board room, unless it happens to be the dark of the moon or a cloudy night, such a night as makes the pulley quake on her roost and the old maid look under her bed.

Did the commissioners also "hold out" for Dick Davis when he paid a visit to Salt Lake City, or for the district attorney when he attended the Bar association meeting, for Sheriff Malley when he lost his arm or Treasurer Mannix during his illness?

TONOPAH ALL STARS TO PLAY HIGH SCHOOL

GAME WILL BE CALLED AT 3 O'CLOCK SHARP AT RECREATION PARK

The Tonopah All Stars, a football team composed of fellows outside of high school, have been practicing daily on a series of plays which they hope to use effectively against the high school players in the game tomorrow. Leading lights of the team claim an easy victory. Their weight and experience will count a great deal, but the high school football machine now has its plays in excellent working order and should win on organization and speed. The teams will line up as follows:

High School	Center	Town
McNeil	Murphy
Fuetsch	Guard	Rideout
Cuddy	Guard	Rumsey
Gilbert	Tackle	Leses
Parker	Tackle	Gibson
O'Connell	End	Lydon
Murphy	End	Walker
Bowler	Quarterback	Pollard
Zeni	Halfback	Cruscoe
Pollard	Halfback	Williams
Ryan	Fullback	Farral

High school subs—Coulter, Bahor, Lamb, Rountree, Eagan.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock sharp. M. J. Conover will referee, Roy Cross will umpire, and Stotesbury and Bennett will act as officials.

Don't forget the masquerade ball Hallowe'en night, October 30, at Miners' hall. Thirty-five dollars in six prizes given away for the best costumes. Costumes for rent at hall. Admission 25 cents each. Everybody invited.—O284.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

"The Caprices of Kitty," a delicious Elsie Janis comedy which affords this clever little actress a display of those rare charms that have made her famous, will be the feature at the Butler tonight.

Elsie Janis, queen of comedienne—in pictures! Let it be known to the patrons of the Butler and to all lovers of pictures that this is the merriest of romantic comedies written by Elsie Janis. She gave to Kitty the most whimsical of personalities, gay, daring, laughter loving and tender. She has imposed upon her Kit a very varied existence and many experiences which will thrill an audience. Kit begins as a romantic boarding school girl who evades the watchful eye of the principal and steals away to drive her racer. Comes the handsome artist and she falls in love. Then follows the novelty plot that is interwoven with happiness and suspense. Elsie Janis holds your interest every minute. The preliminary reel will be Pathe Weekly or current events and scenes of interest from all over the world.

Tomorrow, "After Dark," a World Film feature, and a Charlie Chaplin comedy, "The Fatal Mistake." Don't miss having a good laugh, and don't forget to tell the little folks for "Charlie" is their friend.—Adv.

DECLARED INSANE

After hearing the opinions of Drs. Richards and Cox, Judge Averill last evening declared Charles Thompson insane and committed him to the asylum. The unfortunate is a Finlander, who has been acting very queerly. He was arrested several weeks ago by Officer Peck, but made his escape after inflicting severe injuries upon the policeman. Since he has been in jail he has been under close surveillance and his insanity was considered unquestioned. In court he made a number of erratic statements and concluded by declaring that he was king of the earth.

DEATH OF A CHILD

Howard, the 16-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Peck, died last evening at 9:10. The child was attacked several days ago by simple meningitis. The funeral will take place tomorrow from the family residence at 10 a. m.

COL. D. W. MOODY and Thomas Kendall were passengers today from Goldfield en route to San Francisco.

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY

A second attempt this year was made to burglarize the West End saloon last night, somewhere between midnight and 6 o'clock this morning. The marauder made his way through the hallway to a door that entered the saloon proper, where he cut a hole in the panel large enough to admit his hand, evidently thinking that there was a bolt that could be slipped, but he found a padlock instead and gave up the job.

T. D. ROGERS, the undertaker at Manhattan, who has been doing the exposition for the past two months, returned to Tonopah on today's train.
